

About the New Jersey Consumer Council

The New Jersey Consumer Council (NJCC) is a non-profit consumer education organization with over 16,000 members. NJCC is a chapter of the American Consumer Council that has over 400,000 members and 57 chapters across the nation.

The New Jersey Consumer Council serves as a strong consumer advocate to protect the rights and interests of consumers. NJCC also has a mandate to educate consumers on the purchase and use of safe, reliable products and services. NJCC is a strong champion of Sustainability initiatives, financial education programs for its members, and promotes and fosters corporate social responsibility through its corporate partners.

By joining the New Jersey Consumer Council, consumers can become eligible to join United Teletech Financial Federal Credit Union at no cost! You pay no membership dues or fees as a member benefit of United Teletech, which is proud to be a sponsoring member of NJCC. Also, you'll have access to all of NJCC's financial education programs and the monthly issues of Consumer News & Views as well as NJCC's online services to help you make better purchasing decisions on important products and services.

NJCC and ACC are only provided with your name, address, phone number and email address. Your membership data and information are treated in a confidential, legal and ethical manner. NJCC does not sell, lease, or share your membership data to anyone.
