

E-Statement Agreement and Disclosure

Introduction. This agreement and Disclosure specifically governs the E-Statement Service, and informs you of your rights and responsibilities and the terms and conditions associated with the service you have requested. Please read this Agreement and Disclosure carefully. In this Agreement and Disclosure, the words "you", "your", and "yours" mean each and every one who utilizes E-Statements. The words "we", "us", "our", "UTF", and "Credit Union" mean United Teletech Financial. The words "the Service" refers to E-Statement Service.

By accessing your account statement online, or permitting another to access your statement online, you acknowledge receipt of the Agreement and Disclosure and agree to be bound by all terms and conditions contained herein. You further agree to follow all instructions provided by the Service and reflected on your computer screen. You agree that your consent applies to your entire relationship with the credit union, with the exception of certain accounts that may be administered by our partners. The terms and conditions of this Agreement and Disclosure are in addition to the terms and conditions of any and all other deposit account and credit agreements you have with the Credit Union, including all such disclosures made pursuant to such agreements. You further agree to abide by any terms or conditions, which may be added because of future enhancements to E-Statements.

Services. Using your personal computer (PC) or other approved device and your designated User ID and password, you can access your UTF e-statement 24 hours a day, seven days a week (as long as the service is available). The Service may not be available on other access methods.

Business Days. E-Statements will be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except when down for maintenance, as indicated in the paragraph titled "System Availability."

Agreement for receiving electronic disclosures and notices. Under regulations set by the Federal Reserve Board, you are entitled to receive certain disclosures and notices. Regulations provide that if you agree, the required disclosures and notices may be delivered to you electronically. These disclosures may be delivered on the E-Statement itself, via a link accessible from the E-Statement page, or via email. It is your responsibility to locate and read such disclosures and notices. You should print a copy of each disclosure delivered, read it carefully, and retain it for your reference. Under the terms of the agreement you are not committed to any disclosure unless you use the service which it covers. By signing this agreement, you agree to receive any UTF disclosures and your periodic account statement electronically.

E-Statement Access. You agree to receive your periodic account statement electronically in place of a paper statement sent via US mail to your address of record. You further agree to provide an accurate email address to UTF for the notification that E-Statement is available. If the email address provided is not accurate due to negligence on your part, you agree not to hold UTF liable for sending notification to such address.

You may also request a printed copy of your statement at any time by writing us at the below address. Applicable fees, as outlined in the Fee Schedule, may be charged.

The Credit Union must receive notification of any change in physical or email address three business days prior to the 20th day of the month to give us time to affect the change. Failure to do so may result in a delay or lack of delivery of your statement for the given period. Contact us in writing or visit one of our branches to change your physical address. You can change your email address by updating the information within online banking. Your statements will be available from the E-Statement web pages for 12 months from the date of the statement. At any time you can log into online banking and navigate to the Access Accounts and choose e-Mail Notifications to select to continue to receive e-statements as well as e-mails electronically.

You also have the choice to opt-out of electronic statement delivery back to paper at any time by contacting us via branch or telephone, and fees may apply for each mailed statement.

Applicability Effective Date: this Agreement governs your use of the Service and becomes effective upon your acceptance.

In case of errors or questions about your electronic statement: Contact us IMMEDIATELY if you think your statement is wrong, or if you need more information. You may notify us at 732-530-8100. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Tell us your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, and the date it occurred. Describe the error or the transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can, why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

If you notify us verbally, we may require you to send us your complaint or questions in writing within ten (10) business days. We will tell you, in writing, the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question. If we need to use the forty-five (45) days to investigate, we will provisionally credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or request in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, the credit union is not required to credit your account. If we determine there was no error, we will send you written explanation within three (3) business days after we complete our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation and upon which we relied to conclude that the error did not occur. (We will make these available to you to the extent possible without violating any other member's right to privacy.)

Fees and Charges. There is currently no fee for the Service or termination thereof. However, there may be a fee for each mailed statement should you revert to that delivery method. Please see Fee Schedule for more information. UTF reserves the right to impose fees or to subsequently change any fee structure.

System Availability. Access to the Service may be unavailable at certain times for the following reasons: (1) Scheduled maintenance. There will be periods when systems require maintenance or upgrades; (2) Unscheduled maintenance. Service may be unavailable when unforeseen maintenance is necessary; or, (3) System Outages. Major unforeseen events, including, but not limited to: earthquakes, fires, floods, computer failures, interruptions in telephone service, or electrical outages, that may cause system unavailability. We will make all reasonable efforts to ensure the availability of the Service. However, UTF is in no way liable for the unavailability of the E-Statements Service or any consequential damages that may result.
